HOLY WEEK IS USHERED IN

Nearly Every Church Will Celebrate the Days of Passion.

SAINT AND SINNER ALIKE BOW IN GRIEF

And Recall Suffering and Trials of Savior on the Cross.

Today entered in a week of sorrow, to reach a climax in the celebration of the days of the passion of Christ, which the Catholic churches observe from the first of Holy Week until the resurrection of the Easter morn.

Wednesday evening in the Catholic churches, the feast of the "Passion" is celebrated, or the approach of the passion of Christ. From that time on the altar and church decorations are shrouded in deep black. From the vestments of the priests, and the show the signs of universal mourning. There will be a fasting of the people and a period of an hour will be held until the Easter morn.

Thursday morning, there will be solemn high mass, during which the Holy Eucharist will be celebrated. The Holy Eucharist will be taken from the main altar, and placed at the altar of the Blessed Virgin.

Thursday itself is the feast of the Holy Eucharist, in celebration of the institution of the Eucharist during the last supper of Christ with His Apostles.

Friday, the day of the Crucifixion, will be a day of gloom and sorrow. At 3 o'clock in the afternoon the people will gather in the churches and observe the exact time of the death of Christ. The Holy Eucharist will be celebrated in this church. The celebration will mark this service and meeting of the Junior class. The edition will be in the afternoon at 7 o'clock. The edition will be in the afternoon at 7 o'clock. The edition will be in the afternoon at 7 o'clock.

IVA BOWERS CALLED HOME

Teacher in Lima Schools is Summoned to Great Eternity.

YEAR OF SUFFERING BROUGHT TO END.

Death Occurred at an Early Hour Today at Home of Parents.

Shortly after the breaking of the new day, the spirit of another life was taken from this earth, when the final summons came to Miss Iva Bowers, this morning.

At about 2 o'clock, the call of the angel of death was heard, and there was an end to a life that has been a constant year of suffering.

Miss Iva Bowers was born in Lima, Ohio, on the 25th day of April, 1875. She was the only daughter, the only child of Mr. and Mrs. Byron Bowers.

With her parents she has made her home since birth, and there she passed her final hour today. She was educated in the local schools, and entered into their service when scarcely 20 years of age.

From that time forth she has been in the school work, and has devoted her short life entirely to the education of young minds.

For many years past she has been the teacher of the fifth grade in the McKinley school. She died at her parents' home, and will be buried from there on Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock.

Rev. Knox, pastor of the Market Street Presbyterian church, of which the deceased has been a very devoted member, will have charge of the services. A short address will be made by Superintendent John Davidson, the head of the Lima public schools.

A musical number will be rendered by Miss Ruth Barden, the soprano of the Market Street Presbyterian church choir. The remains will be laid to rest in the final resting place in the Woodlawn cemetery.

Miss Bowers was one of the most popular teachers in the Lima schools. For many years she has been actively engaged in this work, and has become a warm personal friend of every teacher and of every pupil in the McKinley building.

Miss Bowers was held in the highest respect by all who knew her. Expressions of the feeling for her that was common among all of the members of the teaching corps, is the fact that a purse was made up a short time ago among the teachers, that they might substantially show their love for her. When all the contributions had been received, this amounted to over $150.

Look Years Younger! Gray Hair Darkened Beautifully With Sage

Says Sage and Sulphur Will Stop Falling Hair and Cure Dandruff.

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea with sulphur and alcohol added, then left to age and carefully filtered will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant; remove every bit of dandruff, stop scalp itching and falling hair.

Just a few applications will prove a revelation if your hair is fading, gray or dry, scraggy and thin. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur remedy at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get the ready-made tonic, costing about 50 cents a large bottle at drug stores, known as "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy," thus avoiding a lot of fuss. Some druggists make their own, but it isn't nearly so nice as "Wyeth's."

While wispy, gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur you can tell, because it does it so naturally; so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it, draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. Do this tonight and by morning all gray hairs have disappeared, after another application or two it will be restored to its natural color and be even more glossy, soft and luxuriant than ever.

Local druggists say they are selling lots of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur" and it surely helps folks appear years younger. H. F. Vortkamp.

FLETCHER
IN LINE-UPOf New York Nationals, Who Plays White Stars
Tuesday Evening.GREAT GAME IS EXPECTED.Visitors Have Lost but Two Games Since Leaving Metropolis.Another rattling good exhibition of basket ball can be expected tomorrow evening at the auditorium, when the White Stars play the New York Nationals, claimants for the titles of world's champions. The Nationals are well known in Lima, having played there against the White Stars for the past two years. As yet, they have not lost a game to the Lima team, and it will be a battle royal tomorrow evening to see who wins, as the Stars are playing better basket ball this year than last.Added interest is attached to the appearance of the Nationals in Lima this year from the fact that Fletcher, who played with the White Stars last season, is playing with the Nationals this season. The other players are Bruner Brothers, Young, Schmeltz and Ruckert. Like the Oswego team, the Nationals are claiming the world's championship. They have had a most successful trip this year, losing but two games since leaving New York City on January 1.One of the best crowds of the season should be on hand to witness this game, as both teams are expected to play to the limit. Last Tuesday's crowd was the largest of the season, as all were well satisfied with the game. No one can kick on the class of ball being played by the Stars this year, and the team deserves the support from the people which they have been getting.Seals on sale at Butler's drug

LYRIC THEATRE.

The Barrett Players by popular request will offer for the first three days of this week starting with the first performance tonight the widely read and thoroughly enjoyable book play, "The House of a Thousand Candles," written by Meredith Nicholson. This charming play has delighted the audiences over the United States, and by request of many patrons, Mr. Barrett decided to produce it in Lima at popular prices. "The House of a Thousand Candles" will be presented Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday nights with a special matinee Tuesday. Special scenery and electrical effects will be provided, as it is the intention of the management to make this the best production ever offered at popular prices.WILSON HEDGED ABOUT BY CONSPIRACY OF ENTERTAINERSThrows Washington Clubs Into Panic by Declining Membership.Executive Faces Siege of Those Offering Him Social Distinctions.It was not enough that Woodrow Wilson should get himself "in bad" with the haberdashers, real estate agents, butchers, bakers and candlestickmakers of Washington by upsetting the plans for an inaugural ball, out of which they expected, as usual, to reimburse themselves with liberal interest for their "contributions" to the expenses of the inaugural committee. The Washington teapot, hardly yet calm again after that disturbance, he throws it into even a greater tempest by declining honorary membership in the Chevy Chase Country club on the ground that public business will absorb his time largely, to the exclusion of "clubbiness." As a consequence the Columbia Country club, also at Chevy Chase, and the Washington Country club, across the river in Virginia, and the Metropolitan, Army and Navy and Cosmos clubs, the principal downtown clubs of Washington, were in a fine frenzy of perplexity as to whether to make the usual proffers of honorary membership.There is hardly a literary or debating society in the District of Columbia which does not, as a matter of course, elect the president to honorary membership; his down-sitting and his uprising are beset by formal "honors" of one kind or another; every organization of any consequence in its own eyes, from Key West to Cape Men-do, sooner or later invites him to address the club or at least invests him with the degree of past exalted panjandrum.

Cannot Be Ordinary Person.

For a simple, unostentatious, red blooded man the greatest drawback about the presidency of the United States is the fact that from the moment of his election until his term of office expires, and usually long after that, he cannot be a mere human being, with the rights and immunities of an ordinary citizen. Wherever he goes he must be pursued by armed secret service guards, reporters and photographers. He cannot sit down in a club corner, stretch his legs and express opinions upon affairs of the day like other men—his every chance remark is quoted or misquoted on the street corners almost before he has completed it.
His trivial likes and dislikes are known and commented upon; he cannot move hand or foot with the freedom that blesses his fellow men.Some men like this sort of thing.
Within the memory of men still living there have been presidents—one anyway—to whom publicity was the breath of life, who basked in the limelight as in the normal sun of day and took somepains to keep it turned on when other men slept; who counted that day lost when low descending sun failed to find them upon the front pages of the evening papers and the early "bulletin" editions.

Job Is Weary One.

But to the average man, after the novelty wears off, the position of "first citizen of Washington," must get to be a weary business. And if he has come to the White House with any notion that he brings with him rights of privacy, tastes or personal opinions of his own or any of the other attributes that make life bearable for John Doe and Richard Roe, he soon finds his mistake.
The curse falls likewise upon his family. The remarks attributed to Mrs.
Wilson to the effect that a president's wife could dress on $1,000 a year, set all the Washington dinner tables a-burzling.Even the dressmaking of the president's wife and daughters is a public affair, and these alleged remarks—whether Mrs. Wilson really made them or not—will cause the gowns of the Wilson family to bear an inspection of microscopic intensity.So, when you come to the question of club membership, it is in the same atmosphere. Mr. Wilson cannot choose the club—if any—to which he desires to belong and apply for membership like any other man; he must take it as a gift and in some sense an obligation or not at all, and this episode has shown that if he desires it not at all, it is taken more or less as an offense.

Mr. Wilson Knows Dangers.

There is a serious side to the question, and the consideration of it justifies the suspicion that Mr. Wilson has instinctively sensed, or had some pretense information about the real situation in Washington, and the difficulty a president has at best in keeping himself free of embarrassing entanglements. A very plausible argument might be made against the president's accepting membership in any local organization in Washington.One of the hard things about being president is that he can have few influences. For one thing, to be the intimate of the president, if the game is to be played "on the level," is to have the door of advancement shut upon you absolutely. Membership in a "tennis cabinet" has been at times in the past a peculiar qualification for promotion.Before a new president has reached the third week of his incumbency he inspects the "how-dye-do" of every man who greets him in the street; from morning until night almost every person who comes near comes with a demand.ENGLISH COLONY TO FOUND A UTOPIA
IN COSTA RICATo establish a real Utopia in Central America for the future homes of many Englishmen and their families. Walter T. Knight, a lawyer of Bacup, Lancashire, recently sailed for Port Limon.This is the second trip that Mr.
Knight has made to Costa Rica. Ten months ago, as the representative of the Simplists' Society of England, an organization with a membership of 800, he went down to seek an ideal location for the colony."We have purchased sufficient land to accommodate 250 families," said Mr. Knight. "I am going back to make preliminary arrangements, and in June the advance guard of colonists, including carpenters, mechanics, doctors and others, will arrive. By Christmas we hope that 150 families will be settled."Mr. Knight explained that while the new colony would be founded on the teachings of Dr. Theodore Hertzka of Vienna and that the doctor's ideas had been adopted by the Simplists intheir book of regulations, the colony would be limited to Englishmen.

Co-operation Is Plan.

"The main idea is co-operation, with the protection of individual rights and liberty," Mr. Knight continued. "There will be no individual ownership of land. Farmers and workmen will own the product of their labor and will buy and sell among themselves in the currency of Costa Rica.""Women may work for their living if they want to, and will thus be saved the necessity of marrying for a home and support. Cooking and housekeeping will be done by the community.
All work places will be apart from the home section.""Control of the colony will be divided into twelve departments. Education will rank first, and its object will be to instill respect for the rights of others. Interest charging will be illegal. No monopolies or combinations will be allowed. There will be no employers and no proprietors and no chance for idler's profit."

CHOPIN'S LAST PUPIL PLAYS.

he is eighty-three years old. Sixty-five

$1,800,000 to Military Fund.The Lokal Anzeiger of Berlin printed papers regarded as based on official information of the extent of the levy on fortunes which is to go toward paying for the $250,000,000 increase of the army. According to this, the levy will be at rates ranging from $1 in $400 on fortunes between $5,000 and $20,000 to $1 in $25 on fortunes of $20,000,000 and over.Frau Bertha Krupp, the owner of the vast armament and shipbuilding works this scale to contribute $1,800,000 as

GOV. COX ON GOOD ROADS.

"The next time we meet the deeds of the administration will talk a great deal more eloquently than any words I can say."

When this striking statement was uttered by the governor of Ohio, James M. Cox, at the close of a masterly address delivered by him at the Rural Life and Good Roads Congress in Columbus, judging from the applause which greeted his remarks, the large audience was convinced that the prophecy would come true. It also dispelled any doubts that might have existed about the sincerity of the executive, for the delegates knew that in just one year, the governor would be called upon to review his work and counsel the congress.

By resolution adopted, the delegates not only expressed their hearty appreciation of the action of the state executive in calling the congress, but they placed a stronger stamp of approval on it, when they unanimously voted to make the congress an annual institution, with annual sessions. Among the many courtesies shown the delegates, the public reception in the governor's office Thursday afternoon was a notable one.

"We will get nowhere in Ohio so long as we travel in the mud, and we will get nowhere in governmental affairs so long as we use the antiquated agencies and implements that have been discarded by modern men and advanced thought," said the governor in opening his speech.
He then told the farmers of the $1-000,000,000 that have been expended by the federal government to improve the waterways and harbors and to construct public buildings.

"You farmers helped to pay for all that, and now it is time that the city chaps be required to pay for improvements in the country," shouted the governor, and a vociferous round of applause greeted the remark. Then the executive followed with this: "I favor a state levy for the building of good roads." The answering applause from the audience was deafening. Continuing along this line, the governor said he favored a law compelling the use of the split log drag, a reconsideration of the antiquated road laws so they could be brought down to date, and a system of selecting road supervisors that would bring into service the best men, and these all held in close touch with the county and state units engaged in this work.

To stem the tide that is depopu-lating the farms and filling cities, lessening the food supply and sending living prices sky-high, the governor would not only make the tilling of the soil more profitable, but he would bring into the homes in the rural sections, the educational advantages, so far as possible, community life and social benefits that have made the cities more attractive. His school survey, he said, was designed to bring about a single educational system in the state, instead of 100. He has planned to use the data secured by the survey to throttle the vicious school book trust so that the country people will no longer be forced to contribute large sums to it through frequent and forced changes in text books.

To reduce the cost of government, the governor explained his state budget plan, which is expected to have nearly $1,000,000 annually.
The enormous increase in public expenditures was laid, largely, at the door of those who create new lines of activity, and cause separate and new departments to perform the work. He spoke of the plan to consolidate all state labor departments in the interest of economy and efficiency, and then announced that was just what was proposed in the Cunningham bill for the merging of all agricultural departments.
The general assembly was designated as the best body of solons ever elected in Ohio, and reference was made to the lobby purged and clean atmosphere in which they are working in Columbus.

TO BRING MEN BACK TO THE FARM.

Of the 88 counties in Ohio 33 of them decreased in population between the years 1900 and 1910.

In 1900, the rural population of Ohio was 2,159,163, the city population $1,998,352. When the decade closed, the rural population had suffered a loss of 57,185 inhabitants and the city population had increased more than 650,000. Twelve years ago the greater population of Ohio was in the country, today it is in the cities.

The contemplation of these statistics might well worry Governor Cox, who realizes the uncertainties of the industrial wealth and prosperity which are not built upon a basis of agricultural wealth and prosperity. He could ask no better achievement for his administration than a restoration of the former ratio of city to rural population. He could pray for no greater honor than to inspire the founding of an agricultural credit system to encourage the cultivation of a greater acreage and the utilization of waste land, to vitalize a real movement back to the farm. If only a small part of these benefits shall flow from the rural life and good roads congress the governor has called, Mr. Cox will surely consider himself well content.—Hamilton

THE OFFICIAL FAMILY.

There is often a disposition to criticize cabinet appointments on the ground that the men appointed have little knowledge of the departments to which they are assigned. In general such criticisms are unfounded. The attorney general ought to be a lawyer. But the other members of the president's official family need not necessarily be specialists in their departments.

All the departments are conducted by permanent under officials who have had large experience and who have proved their ability by long service. Certain great policies may be outlined by the department head. But the work of the department must be left to the men familiar with it.

A government department is a tremendous business institution. In the four years of a cabinet officer's service he only begins to become familiar with his duties. He must act generally on the advice of the permanent officials.

A president is quite justified in picking out men who are on intimate personal relations with him, or whose judgment on general politics he values. The chief service of the cabinet member must be in helping keep the administration in touch with the people, and in giving good advice on the great question confronting the government.

As for the department, generally they would get on just as well if the president should neglect to make any cabinet appointments.—Kansas City Star.

NEWSPAPER WRITERS.

A bill has been offered in the senate at Harrisburg to establish a state board for the examination of journalists, doubtless with the intent of winning for journalism a place in the accepted category of learned professions.

Why should journalists be examined and not the legislators themselves? Most of those who write for newspapers are of necessity educated men. Formal instruction in the rudiments of grammar and the principles of rhetoric is the least part of the journalist's training. He must have learned not merely to write, but to observe; not merely to turn deft phrases, but to have sound convictions and liberal sympathies. He finds, sooner or later, that he can use in his calling the whole experience of his life, and that every trivial incident of the past is convertible into material for present uses, in some one of a wide variety of ways. The journalist assuredly must have an education. But since the nature of his calling requires him to be educated, it would seem futile to make him go before a state board and answer questions to earn a certificate of literary proficiency.—Philadelphia Ledger.

Discovery of Baptismal Record Base of Legal Fight.

With the discovery of the baptismal record of Joseph Valliere, a French adventurer who became a Spanish denizen, who are scattered throughout the United States, believe they have found the link needed to prove their claims to a tract of land eighty miles in width and 120 miles long, on which part of the city of New Orleans stands. For more than sixty years the heirs have been trying to establish their claim to the grant made to their ancestor by Charles de Coudrelet as Spanish governor in 1763.

John Hurtwile, who was engaged to try to complete the evidence which the Valliere heirs hope is going to divide $100,000,000 between them, found in the parish of L'Etiennne de Beaumont, in Quebec, Canada, the baptismal record of Joseph Valliere.

The Valliere heirs, it is said, have enlisted the aid of United States Senator O'Bannon in having their claim investigated at Washington, and papers are being prepared for the legal fight.

Children's Play-ground In City Park

Report of the Lima Civic League Committee on Playgrounds.

One of the principal ideas of the league work has been, since its organization, the establishment and maintenance of public playgrounds for the children of the city. It has been a long, hard struggle and it was with a great deal of satisfaction that last summer we finally succeeded in getting the first playground started. We took the matter up with the proper authorities and secured permission to use a space in each of the city parks upon which to make our initial effort.
After the plot was decided upon the first thing necessary was the proper drainage so that the soil would dry off quickly after a rain. Three lines of tile were laid so that all parts of the lot were reached and surplus water was carried quickly away.
Then a substantial fence was built around the entire plot in order that play might be properly controlled, as this control is one of the leading features of playground operation.

Much time was spent by the committee in the selection of the proper apparatus and an effort was made to place in the playground only such as could be freely used without danger to the child. It was impossible with the means available to do as much as we wished and it devolved upon the committee to make the greatest possible showing with the least expenditure of cash, and we were only enabled to accomplish what we have by means of the donations received. The item of labor, always large in matters of this kind, was kept at its lowest and the committee did not hesitate to don overalls and assist in the erecting of the apparatus or any other work that presented itself.

Although our first playground is not yet fully equipped, we feel that a great deal has been accomplished in putting it in its present condition. None who visited the Faurot park playground the latter part of last summer and saw the children enjoying themselves and getting health and strength from the good fresh open air can help but realize that the public playground is a much needed factor in a city child's life and that they should lend their support to the league in every possible way that this good work can be still further carried out by the establishment of other playgrounds, of which the league desires eventually to establish at least four in the city.

Before enumerating what we have succeeded in accomplishing in the development of our first playground it is only proper that we acknowledge the assistance which made this possible and extend our thanks to those who so kindly helped us by their donations last year. We received in cash the following:

Mr. Henry Deisel, $50.00; The Deisel-Wemmer Co., $100.00; Mr. A.

L. White, $100.00; Mr. W. T. Ager-ter, $50.00.

Besides this the Buckeye Pipe Line company gave us all the pipe necessary for the equipment of two playgrounds, cutting it to the required lengths and threading and boring it where necessary. This represented another $100.00 although for us to have secured sufficient pipe in the open market would have meant nearer $250 to us. The Woman's Music club and the Etude club combined in presenting the very beautiful drinking fountain.
Mr. Harman added a revolving see-saw and Master Wm. Agerter, gave us a merry-go-round which was busy every minute of the time. These with money from the show given last year and part of the regular yearly dues constituted the working capital.

The following is a list of the different pieces of apparatus installed with the cost of each:

Tilling and grading	$5.00
Fence	95.67
Wading pool	196.00
Sand Piles (awning to be added)	31.30
Volley ball	8.00
Giant stride	44.00
Swings, rings and trapeze	73.00
Baby hammocks (awning still needed)	36.00
6 Saws	23.00
2 Teeter ladders	35.50
Slides	52.00
Building concrete base for fountain	16.00

Setting up merry go round, $10.00.

Making in all a total of $1,400.00 including an estimated cost of the pipe.

It would not be proper for anyone considering the opening of a public playground to take these figures as a working basis unless they worked under the same conditions under which this committee worked and gave as much of their personal time and effort to the cause. Since this same equipment have been purchased complete from the manufacturers and a competent foreman secured, to superintend the erection, we feel that it would cost nearer $1500 than the figure given above. We have also purchased nearly all the apparatus necessary for a second playground and have $121.45 invested there but a great deal more money is needed for reconstruction and the purchase of additional equipment.

The committee thought that by bringing this matter before the public at this time as we are preparing for our summer campaign, that considerable interest might be aroused and that if we could convince the people how much good a little money can accomplish along this line, that they would be willing to render the assistance necessary for the advancement of this great work this year.

DR. A. L. JONES,
J. D. BAILEY,
Committee.

TWO WOMEN'S CLUBS

"Far o'er the sea there's a little green island;

Ireland 'tis called; 'tis a sweet name to me."

This is the day of all days for the Irish and who is there not pleased to acknowledge their ancestry? Somehow, there is about it that pride that creates good fellowship and makes them kin, one to another. And hospitality! It is a generally accepted fact that the Irish can not be surpassed when all is taken into consideration.

Recreation goes back some years, when a traveler in old Ireland was making a journey across the "wild soil" seeking information which later would be used for a newspaper article, named "Home Irish" which Ireland was then so much seeking and in which all ancestors in America were deeply interested. He told me this story:
"My wife and I were traveling along the road, on foot, after a hot and dusty trip of about 30 miles, when we came upon a little cottage where lived a good-sized family."

"The floor was bare, the table was plain and unadorned and the chairs with straight, old-fashioned backs. Heavy China and more often wooden plates and bowls were used. Pipes, mugs and pewter hung upon the wall.

"We stopped and of course engaged in conversation with them.
One has no more than entered their door until invited to have a 'cup of tea.' And they will not take 'no' for an answer. Although we both felt we might be robbing their children by eating of the small cakes, tea and little lunch they set out, yet that generous hospitality and hospitable spirit was so keen that we felt we must partake. Indeed, one would know they were Irish. No matter what they have, be it much or little, they are very well contented and the stranger within their gates is always given a cordial welcome, in all the world implies."

My friend was much interested in the stories the native Irish tell of St. Patrick, where he is idolized and looked upon with greater honor than we in this country, land our great men.

And I thought we Americans might take a lesson from these simple, Irish folk and although we had not much to offer, what is better than a bit of bread and butter eaten under inauspicious circumstances, just so one knows he is welcome. And it is in that welcome the Irish excel, back in old Ireland, where their living is modest, but where their good heart is manifested, upon every hand.

In the little St. Patrick social arrangements, the rooms may be decorated in white and green, with shamrock hangings; the tables trimmed in green and the plates fringed with green and the plates from which the guests are served, have a green fringe all about. The dishes may be trimmed with green, such as lettuce, parsley, etc. The invitations are pretty written with green or gold ink on brown note paper, or on cards cut out in the shape of shamrocks from heavy art-paper, tinted green with watercolor paint, and the writing on these prettiest, if done with gold or silver ink. Green ink to address the envelopes and green wax or shamrock seals may be used.

This is a splendid little invitation:
"Faith, an' it's welcome ye'll be at a party on St. Patrick's day in the evenin'." Palms and ferns and Irish and American flags make suitable decorations. Irish green ribbons and harps also make suitable decorations.

The following menu may well be utilized:

Irish or Oyster Stew Hot Baked Irish Potatoes in Their Jackets
Rolled Sandwiches Tied with Green Ribbon
Potato Salad Garnished With Chopped Parsley
Clover Shaped Sandwiches Pistachio Cream and Shamrock Cakes

With a "Cup of Tea."
This little recipe is often followed for preparing the shamrock cream: "Line a fancy mold with shamrocks cut from citron which has been cooked in water a few minutes to make it tender, then pack a white ice cream flavored with almond and tinted green in the mold and set in ice and salt for two hours to ripen. Garnish with whipped cream and citron shamrocks."

Many hostesses are of the opinion St. Patrick's day, with its pretty favors of spun sugar, fancy ices, bon-bons, fruits, etc., make it easier entertaining and carrying out the arrangements than at any time in the whole year. Especially is this true, if the hostess has a bit of Irish ancestry to increase her pride.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Smith, of the Cardosi apartments, west Market street, were among the entertainers of the week, having a number of friends in for euchre. Mrs.

ceived the pretty prize. A delicious supper was served in the evening.
Those invited were Mr. and Mrs. A.
W. Ruff, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Kiefer, Mr. and Mrs. John Wolf, Mr. and Mrs.
Sowers and Mr. and Mrs. D. Steizer.

Mort Dawson. Seated around the board were Mr. and Mrs. John ing the delicious luncheon by her sister, Mrs. Hays, of south Baxter street, will entertain the club in a fortnight.

The first meeting of the University club since revival services have closed at the various churches, was held last week at the home of Misses Stella and Hazel Pennell, on west Market street. In response to roll call the members gave their ideas of "What is Best for Lima?" The paper of the evening on the subject, "How I Would Spend $100-000 for Lima," by Miss June Justus, was both instructive and entertaining. Music was furnished by the Misses Leana Rudy and Capitola Clark. After the program a committee consisting of the Misses Donathian, Capitola Clark, Ruth Basden, June Justus, Hazel and Stella Pennell served the refreshments, consisting of pressed veal, pea patties, banana salad, olives, parker house rolls, sherbet, hermits, coffee, reception sticks. The guests of the club were Mrs. McBride, Miss Wessie Baker, Mr. and Mrs.

Clyde Troutman and Miss Leana Rudy.

The Progressives will meet Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. Wallace Landis, of 232 south Collett street.
Mrs. J. R. Askam, of west High street, entertained the J. M. P. C. club at the regular weekly meeting.
Needlework took up much of the time. The hostess favored the members with several piano numbers. A delicious luncheon, carried out in the St. Patrick color-scheme, was served. The club will hold the next meeting with Mrs. Clyde Cook, of Richie avenue.

Miss Fannie Hughes, of west Market street, will entertain the Philomathean club this evening, at the regular weekly meeting.

The Queen Quality dinner club was entertained in a delightful manner, Friday afternoon and evening, at the pretty new home of Mr. and Mrs. Seymour Peck, of north Collett street. In the evening a handsomer appointed dinner was served, these guests being present to enjoy the occasion: Mr. and Mrs. D. E.
Clem and children, Mr. and Mrs. M.
A. Crawford, Mr. and Mrs. R. C.
Treaster and son, Clyde, Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Kahle, Mr. and Mrs.
O. T. Bayes, Mr. and Mrs. D. Siferd, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Dobbins and son, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Askam, Miss Ollie Dobbins, Mr. and Mrs. F. R.
Gribler, Mr. and Mrs. Bollier and Miss Kathryn Crawford, of Wapa-koneta. The club will meet again in three weeks with Mr. and Mrs.
Siferd.

Members of the Etude Music club, who had planned to go to St.
Marys, Tuesday afternoon, for the regular meetings with Miss Erma Van Fleet, will take notice that the meeting has been indefinitely postponed.

The Independent Twelve met in third regular session at the home of Mrs. W. H. Stickell, of south Pine street, Thursday afternoon. Although the number thirteen was very prominent, no meeting could be more replete with enjoyment than this one. All members were present and guests were Mrs. H.
Leatherman and Miss Gwendolyn Stickell. An interesting program of comical selections was presented and the fun ran high. The hostess gave the club a chance to air their knowledge of geography and history.
Mrs. Crandall knew most and Mrs.
Waters least, it seemed. The hostess, assisted by her daughter, served a delicious luncheon, the favors being in keeping with the season, St.

Patrick's day. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Barsch, of Belfontaine avenue and Elm street.

Reassuring Him.

"I thought I told you not to eat my porterhouse steak without my permission."
"So you did, doc; so you did."
"Then why are you disobeying my order?"
"This week's delay the paying of my bill, doc; this steak is being paid for by my friend here."—Houston Post.

The Modern Cinderella.

One day the teacher during recess told the children the story of Cinderella.
The next day, to test their memory, she asked them:
"Why did Cinderella have to leave the ball promptly at 12?" A bright little maid answered: "So she could catch the last car."—St. Louis

Best Known Cough Remedy.
For forty-three years Dr. King's New Discovery has been known throughout the world as the most reliable cough remedy. Our chemical bottles were used last year isn't this proof? It will get rid of your cough, or we will refund your money. J. I. Owens, of Allentown, Pa., writes the way hundreds of others have done: "After twenty years, I find that Dr. King's New Discovery is the best remedy for coughs and colds and all throat and lung troubles. It has no equal at

THE ORPHEUM.

Featuring what is without doubt as clever an act of its kind yet seen in Lima, "The Monkey Hippodrome" the Orpheum opened its new bill for the first half of the week this afternoon. "The Monkey Hippodrome" is on a larger scale than most and of its kind on the stage and it is interesting to grownups as it is enjoyable to the young folk.

Another act that will please is the Bennett Sisters, singers and re-quists. Lowell and Esther Bennett present a sketch built for laughs purposes only, "At the Drug Store." Mack C. Willis has plenty of old crisp German dialect comedy and Gilly Geyer a stunning novelty act the bill is well balanced and above the standard. New run pictures will close each performance.

NOTICE.

All interested in the cantata to be given in the near future by the Tribe of Ben Hur will please be present next Wednesday evening in Central hall. We hope to be able at that time to settle time and place and complete all arrangements as well as have another very thorough practice.

GAMES WERE ALL SLIDES

League Leaders Took All Contests of Last Saturday.

LITTLE INTEREST IN THESE GAMES

Several Good Contests on Before Close of the Season

S. S. Church of Christ	3	8	.273

Saturday Night's Results.
Olivet Presbyterian, 25; First Baptist, 13.
Market Street Presbyterian, 29; S. S. Church of Christ, 7.
Central Ch. of Christ, 19; First Christian 13.
Trinity M. E., 31; First U. B., 6.

But little interest or excitement developed from the games of the Church league of last Saturday evening. All of the leaders succeeded in defeating their opponents, so that the relative position of the teams was not altered in the least. The race for the first and second divisions appears to be ended, and all left is the position of each team in the first squad of four, and the same in the second.

Though the playing was occasionally fast and good floor work was manifested, there was but little spectacular playing, and nothing of a fast nature. The basket shooting of the first division men was the sole feature.

Of the four games that furnished the entertainment for Saturday night there was but one score that was close. The Central Church of Christ only defeated the First Christians by six points. Pretty good for the tall ends. The other scores were large, and are typical of the games themselves.

There are but three series yet to be played in this league this season, the closing games being played at the Y. M. C. A. on the fifth of April. There may be some change by the time that this finish is reached, as some of the first section teams are matched again before the end. Next Saturday night Market Street Presbyterians, the close contenders for the first position, and but one half game behind, will meet the Central Church of Christ squad, the team next in standing to them. On the last date of the league for the season the Trinity M. E. team will have an opportunity to take the promised crimp in the standing of leaders.

The quintette from the First Christian church are still maintaining their unequal record of a complete list of defeats. For some unknown reason this aggregation has been unable to come out of one game to the good.

On next Saturday the teams will line up:
S. S. Church of Christ vs. Olivet Presbyterian.
Central Church of Christ vs. Market St. Presbyterian Trinity M. E. vs. First Christian.
First Baptist vs. First United Brethren.

AMBULANCE RACE TO-DAY

Two Wagons Ran Neck and Neck From Square to Erie R. R.

ITALIAN INJURED FELL FROM WAGON.

Carlo Definno, a Driver for Frank Collucci, is Hurt.

One of the most spectacular runs that has been made in this city in some time past by an ambulance was seen this morning on south Main street. Shortly after nine o'clock the word spread about that a man had been hurt at the Erie crossing at Main street, when he had fallen off a wagon that he was driving. The information had scarcely become known when the Williams and Davis ambulance tore madly south on Main. The clanging of the bell, the shouts of the drivers, the heavy hammering of the horses' feet, attracted the attention of everyone in the neighborhood. Half a block behind the Williams and Davis ambulance came the Whitley ambulance, the little sorrel team straining every muscle to overtake the ones ahead. Their driver was handling them carefully and they slowly narrowed the space between. So imperceptible was their gaining, however, that from the square to Kibby street was taken up before the gap was closed. Then with a spurt that was almost phenomenal they went around the team that had led the entire distance.

The people traversing the sidewalks of north Main street, the shop keepers, the residents, all stopped and watched the race between the two madly charging relief wagons. Throughout the entire course it was a contest. The Whitley wagon, however, was the first to arrive on the scene. There it was found that the accident amounted to the injuring of the foot of Carlo Definno, a driver for Frank Collucci. He had fallen from his wagon. It is thought he sustained a broken ankle.

ST. PATRICK HONORED IN SONG AND STORY BY LIMA HIBERNIANS

Hon. Timothy Hogan, Attorney General of Ohio, Chief Speaker.

FATHER REDDING
GIVES FINE TALK.

Pupils of St. Johns School Add Much to Interesting Program.

In celebration of the birthday of the patron saint of Ireland, St.
Patrick, and at the same time contributing to the fund for the new St. John's church, a most delightful entertainment was given at the Auditorium last evening. All was under the auspices of the Ancient Order of Hibernians, Division No. 2. A large crowd was present to enjoy the evening, and none was in the least dissatisfied.

From the very start of the most carefully selected and cleverly arranged program it was a most pleasurable entertainment.

The feature of the program was the address by the Honorable Timothy D. Hogan, attorney general of the state of Ohio, and one of the most prominent citizens of this part of the country. Choosing for his topic the fatherland of the saint for whose birthday celebration the entertainment had been provided, as well as the old sod of many in attendance, the speaker gave himself over to his words of "Ireland." The old saying that "None know Ireland like the Irish" was well substantiated in this address. Mr. Hogan was introduced by Judge William Klinger, of Lima.

"The Day We Celebrate," was the title of the address that was made by the Rev. Thomas A. Redding, of Maumee, Ohio. He was also one of the leading features of the program, and had come to Lima especially for this occasion. His tributes to the life of the patron saint, St. Patrick, and the general tenor of the remarks that he made, were of the highest calibre. His talk was one of the most enjoyable heard in Lima in some time past.

The address of welcome was in-itself no small feature of the enjoyment of the evening. The Rev.

Father Schwertner gave this address. It is the first appearance of Father Schwertner in public since his return from the hospital at Canton. His presence before the general Lima public was greeted with much pleasure. His remarks were exceeding well chosen, and his words straight and hard at the mark. He convinced all of their welcome.

The hall had been appropriately decorated for the occasion. There was a general predominance of green, and many green flowers did tribute to the name of St. Patrick.

The entertainment was opened by an overture, "Echoes From Ireland," by the orchestra. It was followed by the address by Father Schwertner. A baritone solo by Richard Shannon, entitled "The Kerry Dance," was a feature next introduced which was greatly enjoyed by all present. Mr. Shappell was accompanied by Miss Bertha Falk. The address of Rev. Redding was the next number. Then the orchestra got back to the old sod again with "Sounds From Old Ireland," then that the address of Mr. Hogan was given. Mr.
Hogan has a great many friends and admirers in Lima and is an ever-popular speaker here. His remarks were excellent and left a lasting impression. "God Save Ireland," was sung by the St. John's high school with a vim and enthusiasm that was stirring. Miss Gladys Simons was at the piano. The evening closed with a medley—"American Home Songs," by the orchestra.

Map in the Nursery.
I have discovered that a large map of the United States hanging in the nursery, or where the children can see it, is a great educator. A map of your own state also, showing counties, townships, capitals, etc., will also help all the family to know more practical geography than may be studied in books. It is a good idea to consult both maps frequently with the children, to look up any strange towns read about in the paper. It teaches them to know their own country, state, city, etc.—Harper's Bazar.

APPELLATE COURT HERE

The Week Allotted to This County Begins Tomorrow Morning.

MANY CASES ARE SET FOR HEARING

Lower Court Occupied With Damage Case Against the C., H. & D.

Tomorrow will see the beginning of the first session of the court of appeals in this county. The successor of the circuit court under the new constitution of the state that was ratified by the election that was held last September is the appellate court, similar in style and function to its predecessor, but in some ways different. In this district the same judges are presiding over this court who were in office under the old circuit court. Judge Donnelly was elected in November. Judges Kinder and Crowe have yet unexpired terms to serve.

The court will convene at the Alein county court house tomorrow morning at ten o'clock. According to the published list of cases the business will be quite heavy for this court during its brief session here. On next Tuesday it is scheduled to open in Union county. In therefore one week there are thirty-two cases to be investigated. Several matters of somewhat sensational character, some that will interest many people, and some that have attracted great attention in the past in the lower court, will be brought up before this higher tribunal.

In probate court today Judge F.
C. Becker appointed Tobias Eby the administrator of the estate of the late Menno S. Steiner. The appointee gave bond in the sum of $5,000.
His papers were approved.

In the lower court room Judge Klinger spent the entire fore part of the afternoon in hearing a motion to dismiss the case in the matter of Joseph Forest vs. the C. H. & D. At present writing the arguments were still in progress.

An affidavit was filed this morning in the court of Probate Judge Fred C. Becker by Anna Nash, in which an inquest into the lunacy of one Michael Nash, her husband, is requested. The man is at present at the city hospital. The hearing has been arranged for Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock.

The hearing of the damage case of Joseph Forest against the C. H. & D. Railway company was resumed this morning after a recess since Saturday noon. The taking of the testimony was carried on today as it has been done in the two former days of the trial. It is impossible to state just when the case will go to the jury, or even when the attorneys will begin their arguments. Judge Klinger is presiding in the case. The petition of Mr. Forest is being presented to the court, and his story proved by Mr. D. C. Henderson, his counsel.
Mr. J. R. Longworth of this city, assisted by several of the special counsel for the railway, are looking after

PRETTY DUTCH GIRL LECTURES TO-NIGHT FOR BENEFIT OF B. W. C.

Showing immediate and deep interest in the welfare of the business Woman's club, of this city, Miss Dora Rodriguez, clever Dutch miss who arrived in Lima Friday on her bike around the world, has offered her services as a lecturer to the local woman's club and tonight will give a talk on her interesting travels.
Illustrated with excellent stereopticon views.

The lecture will be given at 8 o'clock this evening in the Lima high school auditorium and a small admission fee will be charged. This lecture will be very entertaining as well as valuable to both young and old alike.

It was the intention of Miss Rodriguez on her arrival in Lima last Friday, to leave this morning for points north including Findlay and Toledo, but the realization that a lecture such as she will give tonight would be of benefit to those of her sex who themselves have their own way to make in this busy world, was sufficient to cause a change of Miss Rodriguez' "hiking" schedule.

ALLEGED ROBBERS OF U. S. MAIL CAUGHT.

Paris Police Got Three in Great Postal Thievery.

By the arrest of two sorters of American mail and a notorious character the police of Paris believe they have put an end to the robberies which have baffled them for ten years. The thefts run into the hundreds of thousands of dollars, and many Americans have suffered.

By a long process of elimination among 200 sorters of American mail suspicion centered upon a sorter named Dupont.

He was seen to take a package when leaving the postoffice and meet another sorter named Roux. The two were afterward joined by a notorious receiver of stolen goods, who was arrested as he left the Roux lodgings.
Upon being searched the police found $6,400 in American checks, whereupon both Dupont and Roux were arrested.
In their rooms numerous partially burned letters were discovered. Roux confessed to his share of the thefts.

Comparative Digestibility of Food

Made with different Baking Powders

From a Series of Elaborate Chemical Tests: An equal quantity of bread (biscuit) was made with each of three different kinds of baking powder—cream of tartar, phosphate, and alum—and submitted separately to the action of the digestive fluid each for the same length of time.

The relative percentage of the food digested is shown as follows:

Bread made with Royal Cream of Tartar Powder:	100 Per Cent. Digested
Bread made with phosphate powder:	68 1/4 Per Cent. Digested Bread made with alum powder:	67 3/4 Per Cent. Digested

These tests, which are absolutely reliable and unprejudiced, make plain a fact of great importance to everyone: Food raised with Royal, a cream of tartar Baking Powder, is shown to be entirely digestible, while the alum and phosphate powders are found to largely retard the digestion of the food made from them.

Undigested food is not only wasted food, but it is the source of very many bodily ailments.

ARRESTED AT BARBERTON

Kain Bazin and Mrs. Chudanov Brought Back to Lima for Trial.

HUSBAND CAUSED THEIR ARREST.

Hearing Will be Held Before Mayor Shook This Afternoon.

Decidedly unpleasant was the ending of the flirtatious courtship and elopement of Kain Bazin, 24, a Bohemian from Barberton, and Mrs. Helen Chudanov, 30, wife of a prosperous Serbian butcher, of Barberton, which terminated in the arrest and imprisonment of the couple at Barberton last Saturday evening.

Local authorities were notified of the arrest, and acting Sergeant McCoy despatched to Barberton to bring them back to this city, where affidavits charging them with adultery were filed by the deserted husband over a week ago. Peter Chudanov, the husband, accompanied McCoy and his prisoners to this city last evening, and will be the main witness for the prosecution at the hearing to be held some time this afternoon.

Attention of the Lima police department was first attracted to the case on March 7, when Chudanov, having been informed that the couple were living in this city, came to Lima to swear out a warrant for their arrest.

Notice of his coming, however, had been telegraphed to Bazin and Mrs. Chudanov, and when the officers visited the home on west North street where they had been

Mrs. Battling Nelson Meets Mrs. Joe Rivers

The photograph shows Mrs. Battling Nelson (at right) greeting Mrs. Joe Rivers. When Mrs. Rivers was living, they found that the couple had left town a few hours before, presumably for Barberton.

Early last Saturday evening the couple returned to Barberton, and were at once placed under arrest. Local authorities were notified, and Sergeant McCoy detailed to bring them back to this city.

It will be remembered that at the time of their elopement, Mrs. Chudanov decamped with $200 which her husband had entrusted her to take to the bank. The greater part of this amount was spent for furniture and household expenses while they were living in this city.

starry-eyed sweetheart, for the war department learned today that Colonel K. Hunter, of the Seventh cavalry has issued an order prohibiting the men of the Manila garrison from appearing in public with native women. The order was imperative and read:

"Members of this command are hereby forbidden to be seen in public in the company of native women, except those men who are married to such women."

GENERAL CARTER RESENTS EFFORTS TO REMOVE TROOPS

Washington, March 17.—Major general William H. Carter, commanding the central division on the Mexican border, has strongly resented to the war department the numerous efforts alleged to be made to secure a removal of the troops of the second brigade from Texas City, Texas. In an official report General Carter assumes full responsibility for placing troops at that port, which he considers a healthful spot, and estimates that statements to the contrary are from sources commercially interested in the transfer of the troops to Galveston.

HEAVY DOCKET IN POLICE COURT

Police kept Busy Saturday Night and Sunday Morning in Minor Offenders.

The usual round-up of minor offenders, recovering from the effects of Saturday night and Sunday debauches, was noticeable at police court this morning, where their cases were handled with speed and despatch by Mayor Shook.

Billstein, who was discovered asleep in a field near the intersection of Kibby street and the D. T. & I. railroad yesterday morning, was the first prisoner arraigned this morning. Residents in that vicinity notified police headquarters that the man had been asleep for more than two hours, and he was well nigh frozen when brought to the station.

Downing had no recollection of the little "snore," and entered a plea of not guilty to the charge of drunkenness. Patrolman Sullivan, the arresting officer, was called in as a witness, and as soon as Sullivan entered the door of the courtroom, Downing's memory returned. He then pleaded guilty, and was fined $1 and costs.

Charles Houson, of New Hampshire, who was rescued from probable death in the C. H. & D. yards Saturday evening by Patrolman Billstein, was the next called. Houson had been struck and rendered unconscious by a moving train which he had tried to board, and when discovered, was lying prostrate across the tracks, with several trains moving back and fro in the yards.

Billstein rescued him from his perilous position, and took him to police station, where he was locked up. He pleaded guilty to a drunk charge this morning, and was fined $5 and costs.

Other plain drunks included the following repeaters, William Smith, Covington, E. McDonald, Eli Spilde and Philip Cotter, all of whom were fined $5 and costs each, and Harry Smith, Louis Lewis, Samuel Randell, Charles Warwick and Shorty Cook, each of whom drew the minimum fine of $1 and costs each.

Youths Arrested.
After eluding the police for several days, Earl Burk and Harry Watt, south side youths against whom affidavits were filed charging them with creating a disturbance in a south side pool room, gave themselves up to the police Saturday afternoon. Watt secured his temporary release on $10 bond to appear before the mayor this morning.

Burk was arraigned before Mayor Shook this morning, and entered a plea of guilty to the charge. He was fined $5 and costs which he paid, and was released. Watt failed to appear as promised, and the bond of $10 was declared forfeited by the mayor, who is undecided as to whether or not he will order the young man's arrest.

DEDICATION ANNIVERSARY

Was Celebrated Yesterday by the Congregation of Trinity Church.

NEW NAMES ADDED TO CHURCH ROLL

Great Work Has Been Done During Rev. Fuller's Pastorate.

Yesterday was the first anniversary of the dedication of the New Trinity church, and also being Palm Sunday, auspiciously presented opportunities bearing splendid results. The Sunday school which was well attended and in which a splendid surprise was given during the opening exercises, was followed by services which will long be remembered by those in attendance.

Dr. M. B. Fuller conducted the services and 104 new names were added to Trinity's honor roll. 81 were received into full membership, 21 by letter and two on probation. The rite of baptism was administered to 17.

Dr. Fuller is a pastor who does things well. His record will attest to his untiring, faithful and efficient work. Since October first, this year, 252 have been received into membership by letter and on confession of faith. During his pastorate here of 18 months, 612 have been received into membership by him. When it is remembered that this has all been done since Billy Sunday's great work, the record is a remarkable one.

The Sunday school is likewise on the increase both in interest manifested and in attendance. The average attendance now is near 550. The school is conducted along unique lines and an interesting opening program, planned by a surprise committee, is given each Sunday.

Easter will be appropriately observed, beginning with a sunrise prayer service conducted by the Epworth League, a special program will be given in the Sunday school session the morning service will appropriately honor the day in music and in message. In the evening a strong chorus of 25 voices will render "The Holy City," an oratorio by A. R. Gaul. A general welcome is extended to all services.

The Cause of Rheumatism. Stomach trouble, liver and deranged kidneys are the cause of rheumatism. Get your stomach, liver and kidneys and bowels in healthy condition by taking Electric Bitters, and you will not be troubled with the pains of rheumatism. Charles B. Allen, a school principal, of Sylvania, Ga., who suffered indescribable torture from rheumatism, liver and stomach trouble and diseased kidneys, writes: "All remedies failed until I used Electric Bitters, and four bottles of this wonderful remedy cured me completely." Maybe your rheumatic pains come from stomach, liver and kidney troubles. Electric Bitters will give you prompt relief. 50c and $1.00. Recommended by H. F. Vorkamp.

Wear-Ever utensils are light to handle and easy to clean. They cannot form a poisonous compound with fruit acids or foods. You can let food burn dry without injuring them. Cannot rust, cannot chip or scale—are practically indestructible.

PALM SONGS IN CHURCHES

Festal Day of Christ's Entry Into Jerusalem Celebrated Joyfully.

SPECIAL MUSIC AND SPECIAL SERMONS

In Protestant and Catholic Churches — Day is Joyful.

Long slender strips of yellowish-green palm, almost shining in the warm morning sunlight, were in themselves enough to convince the non-church goer yesterday just what the day was.

The strips of palm leaves were distributed among the various church congregations more generously yesterday than heretofore. In nearly every part of Lima, men, women and children returned from church, carrying in their hands, these palms. Some broke off small pieces and placed them in their coat lapels, thus giving to the sacred emblem an unconventional usage. In the churches, there was brighter and more expressive music, a brighter tone to the church services, a happier air among the congregations than there has been during the preceding Sundays in Lent. Yesterday there was being celebrated the happy entry of Christ into Jerusalem and the churches voiced the happiness. The palms that the people of Jerusalem strewed along the pathway of the Savior were recalled in the slender strips that were given out to the congregations.

In the Catholic and Episcopal churches the Palm Sunday services were elaborate. The triumphal entry of Christ into Jerusalem was the theme of nearly every sermon. In nearly every church there was special music to add interest to the occasion.

Solemn high masses were the rule in the Catholic churches. In some edifices a reading of the Passion took the place of the regular sermon. Christ's entry into the Holy City was reviewed and afterward His betrayal, His trial and His Crucifixion.

Faure's "The Palm's" the inspiring sacred song written first in the French, was heard at a number of the services. The best soloists in Lima took part in the musical programs.
